

Real California Burritos & Tacos

Press Release: 07.04.2018

WINTER COMES TO A CLOSE BUT TORTILLA SPRINGS UP IN HARROW WITH NEW STORE

Harrow – the original stomping grounds of infamous fashion icon Vivienne Westwood, the birthplace of pop singer Peter Andre, and from Saturday 7th April, Tortilla – the well known and loved Californian burrito and taco restaurant.

Tortilla's new store will bring its authentic flavour to Harrow's fashionista's, mysterious girls and beyond, serving fresh and flavoursome burritos, tacos and quesadillas, as well as their classic margaritas and beer selection.

Harrow residents will now be able to get their hands on the UK's best burritos with the new open plan store launching in St Georges Shopping Centre, Harrow, under its impressive glass dome roof with space for over 50 burrito lovers to enjoy the menu.

With a range of menu options lovingly prepared on site by the stores new team of specially trained staff, you can always make your meal your own – are you a carnivorous carnitas lover or a do you prefer a bold barbacoa? Veggies can also get down with our tasty guacamole, fresh salsa's salads and sauces - and with over 430 different combinations available for the tres taco's alone, customers will be spoilt for choice.

The store design embraces the Californian elements commonly found throughout the Tortilla estate, from reclaimed timber to the brushed steel feature lights and cages.

Richard Morris, Managing Director of Tortilla said: "Harrow has always been on our radar, it's a town with a real buzz and now a Tortilla, what more could residents want?"

"We're incredibly passionate about bringing our Californian heritage and well-loved burritos to people across the country and this is our 36th store. Whether it's a grab-and-go lunch, dinner with friends or a few sneaky Coronas, every one of our stores aims to serve the best quality burritos and tacos in the UK. Given the spring we're having I think people could do with a little injection of Californian sunshine."

Tortilla Harrow is celebrating its opening with a free lunch for the public on Friday 6th April, 12pm - 2pm. Register at tortilla.co.uk.
